Letter No 690 of the 10 October 1898
from the Chief Commandant Mysore State Troops requesting to be informed of the Inspecting Officer's opinion on the recommendation made by the D. A. A. G. for Musketry regarding the introduction of the Metropolitan whistles into the Mysore Imperial Service Cavalry.

No. 547

Endorsed - Forwarded to the Inspecting Officer
Hyderabad and Mysore Imperial Service
Lancers for favour of opinion - HE 11/10/98

We have had previous correspondence about whistles. The present pattern was I believe substituted by Capt Forbes?

NS 11/10

Inspecting Officer's No 356 D. 14-10-98
intimating that he concurs with Capt.
Crawford as to the uselessness of the whistles in use at present.

Endorsement. "Forwarded to C.C for favour of note and return" HE 15/10/98

NS 15/10

I asked for the P.P. I am almost sure there present whistles were suggested by Capt F. please see previous papers.
